Dear Sir or Madam

As of June 2005 United for Life has written to over 80 charities and organisations including (Charity or Organisation's Name) to raise our concerns over the issue of poverty and human rights abuses around the world.

United for Life's campaign shows that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHRs) protects the right to life of 'all members of the human family'. Since the unborn are members of the human family the UDHRs protects the right to life of the unborn. The Declaration on the Rights of the Child states that, '...the child, by reason of his physical and mental immaturity, needs special safeguards and care, including appropriate legal protection, before as well as after birth.'

(Charity or Organisation's Name) has failed to reply to our letter asking them to join our Make Abortion History campaign. This has raised the question of (Charity or Organisation's Name) commitment to implementing in full the UDHRs and the Declaration on the Right of the Child in regard to the unborn and so we would question your organisation further. Silence is not an option where human rights are concerned and we urge (Charity or Organisation's Name) to reply.

No group of humans can be treated as 'non-persons' and this includes the disabled, the elderly, slaves, Jews, Christians, the unborn or any other group, including human embryos. Thus, no excuse can be made to exclude any group of humans from equal protection under law.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights proclaims these Rights as 'a common standard of achievement for all peoples and all nations' and that 'every individual and every organ of society ...shall strive ...to secure their universal and effective recognition and observance ...among the peoples of Member States.' It is therefore United for Life's duty to call upon (Charity or Organisation's Name) to help promote legal protection for children before as well as after birth.

We invite (Charity or Organisation's Name) once again to make the commitments found on our website and to join our Make Abortion History campaign. We await your earliest reply.

Yours faithfully
